

Kindergarten

Read the article "Awesome Adaptations" and tell which one of the cave creatures you liked best. Draw a picture. By clicking on Read Aloud, the story will be read to you.

<https://www.timeforkids.com/k1/awesome-adaptations/>

1st Grade

Nature Week: The weather is going to be warm this week. It's the perfect time to go outside in the backyard or porch and read for a while. Send me the title of the book or poem or magazine that you read. If you are unable to go out and read, then just send me a quick warm hello. I'd love to see a picture of you reading outside.

Enjoy these nature videos from National Geographic Kids and please explore the website.

<https://kids.nationalgeographic.com/videos/#/795781187704>

<https://kids.nationalgeographic.com/videos/cute-animals/>

2nd Grade

Read the article "Awesome Adaptations" and tell which one of the cave creatures you liked best. Draw a picture. By clicking on Read Aloud, the story will be read to you.

<https://www.timeforkids.com/k1/awesome-adaptations/>

3rd Grade

Read the article "Cats or Dogs?" then answer the question on your google classroom document on which one would make a better pet and why. Find evidence in your text to support your answer.

<https://sn56.scholastic.com/issues/2017-18/043018/cats-or-dogs.html>

4th Grade

Nature Week: The weather is going to be warm this week. It's the perfect time to go outside in the backyard or porch and read for a while. Send me the title of the book or poem or magazine that you read. If you are unable to go out and read, then just send me a quick warm Spring hello. I'd love to see a picture of you reading outside.

Enjoy these nature videos from National Geographic Kids and please explore the website.

<https://kids.nationalgeographic.com/videos/#/795781187704>

<https://kids.nationalgeographic.com/videos/weird-but-truefast-facts/#/1244747331620>

5th Grade

Nature Week: The weather is going to be warm this week. It's the perfect time to go outside in the backyard or porch and read for a while. Send me the title of the book or poem or magazine that you read. If you are unable to go out and read, then just send me a quick warm Spring hello. I'd love to see a picture of you reading outside.

Enjoy these nature videos from National Geographic Kids and please explore the website.

<https://kids.nationalgeographic.com/videos/#/795781187704>

<https://kids.nationalgeographic.com/videos/weird-but-true-shorts/>

6th Grade

Read the article “Brush with the Law” and answer the question What side of the debate are you on and why? (Is the house an piece of art or an eyesore) on the google document sent on Google Classroom. If you click on Text-to-speech, the article will be read to you.

<https://art.scholastic.com/issues/2018-19/120118/brush-with-the-law.html>

7th Grade

Nature Week: The weather is going to be warm this week. It’s the perfect time to go outside in the backyard or porch and read for a while. Send me the title of the book or poem or magazine that you read. If you are unable to go out and read, then just send me a quick warm Spring hello. I’d love to see a picture of you reading outside.

Enjoy these nature videos from National Geographic Kids and please explore the website.

<https://kids.nationalgeographic.com/videos/#/795781187704>

<https://kids.nationalgeographic.com/videos/weird-but-true-shorts/>

8th Grade

Read the article “Brush with the Law” and answer the question What side of the debate are you on and why? (Is the house an piece of art or an eyesore) on the google document sent on Google Classroom. If you click on Text-to-speech, the article will be read to you.

<https://art.scholastic.com/issues/2018-19/120118/brush-with-the-law.html>